Writing brilliant business cases – a TIQ workshop

Business Cases in Practice workshop

You've got the bright ideas, now get investment-ready with TIQ's Business Cases in Practice.

Register by 5pm Friday 1 June for this subsidised workshop, which will teach you to develop brilliant business cases to attract investors to your next project.

This 2-day workshop offered in partnership with UQ Executive Education and Queensland Treasury Corporation offers practical, hands-on learning tailored to your own unique challenges and opportunities.

The workshop combines open discussions and practical exercises, taking you step-by-step through developing and reviewing an effective business case, and giving you the opportunity to apply the techniques you learn in a real-life context.

Date: 5–6 June 2018

Location: Eacham Room, Mercure Townsville
166 Woolcock Street
Currajong 4812

Cost: $150, including all materials and catering.
RSVP: by 1 June 2018
